DISCLOSURE / TRANSPARENCE

All faculty members, lecturers, workshops givers and live surgery doers or participants must disclose any financial interest in any of the products, devices, or drugs on the market or mentioned or used by them in their presentations. This obligation stands the same for the attendees previous to any question to a lecturer or workshop/live surgery giver.

Tous les participants à ce meeting, conférenciers, responsables ou participants aux workshops et chirurgies en direct doivent révéler tout intérêt financier qu'ils auraient concernant tous produits, appareils ou médicaments sur le marché ou mentionnés ou utilisés par eux lors de leurs présentations.

Cette obligation de transparence s'applique également de façon identique à tout membre de l'auditoire avant qu'il ne pose une question à un des conférenciers, responsables ou participants aux workshops /chirurgies en direct.

N.B. Le masculin inclut le féminin pour faciliter cet énoncé.

COPYRIGHT

All of the proceedings of the CACS meeting 2008, including the presentation of scientific papers, are intended solely for the benefit of the members of the Canadian Academy of Cosmetic Surgery. No statement or presentation made is to be regarded as dedicated to the public domain. Any statement or presentation is to be regarded as limited publication only and all property rights in the material presented, including common law copyright are expressly reserved to the speaker or the CACS. Any sound reproduction, transcript, or other use of the material presented to the meeting without the permission of the speaker or the CACS is prohibited to the full extent of common law copyright in such material.

DISCLAIMER

Materials and information presented during CACS meeting 2008 represent the personal viewpoint of the individual speaker and do not represent the opinions, positions, or viewpoints of the CACS.

By registering to attend CACS meeting 2008, attendees acknowledge they are voluntarily participating in this CACS sponsored medical education program and waive any right to make any claim, including any claim for injury or damages against CACS for reliance on materials or information presented during CACS meeting 2008. CACS does not assume any responsibility for any expenses incurred by registrants without prior written authorization from CACS.

Health Canada approval is required for procedures and/or discussions of drugs, devices or biologicals that have not been approved by Health Canada for the particular use being demonstrated or discussed, as well as demonstrations and/or discussions of drugs, devices or biologicals that remain in the investigational stages of Health Canada approval process.

The advertisements represented in this publication do not constitute an endorsement by the CACS. The use of any medical device, product or service is a decision between physicians and their patients. Acceptance of advertisements is at the sole discretion of CACS. CACS, its employees, agents and editors are not responsible for claims made in the advertisements published. It is the sole responsibility of the advertiser to comply with all legal requirements relating to the marketing and sale of products or services advertised in this CACS publication. By providing such advertisements to CACS, the advertiser represents that they have done so.

Programs and/or schedules are subject to change.

PHOTOGRAPHY/VIDEOTAPING POLICIES

No photography, videotaping or audiotaping is permitted in the scientific sessions, instructional courses, live surgeries, workshops, Exhibit hall, or committee meetings.

CACS MEETING 2008 ACCREDITATION AND DESIGNATION STATEMENTS

Demands have been made to the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada and the Canadian College of Family Physicians for credits for this meeting. Accreditation and designation will be notified to the participants as soon as available.

POLICY ON CONFLICT OF INTEREST

As a continuous medical education credit provider, CACS has the obligation to ensure the delivery of education that is balanced and free of commercial bias. To achieve this, CACS educational policy requires that all CME related committee members and faculty disclose in WRITING any interest they might have which may result in the opportunity to insert bias. Faculty members are also required to disclose any planned mention of off-label/unapproved uses of drugs or devices within their presentations. Further, faculty members are required to insure that all presentations will be free of bias, as well as ensure that all material will be based on best-available evidence. Activity chairs, moderators, etc have the opportunity for advance review and resolution of any real or apparent bias. FACULTY MEMBERS, as well as COMMENTATORS FROM THE FLOOR, are charged with disclosing any interests immediately prior to speaking. All activity moderators and discussants are charged with in-session challenge when necessary.
